Tick it off your bucket list!

On this exciting voyage to Norway, Marco Polo will venture high into the Arctic Circle in search of the Aurora Borealis or Northern Lights. This atmospheric display of green and pink light dancing across the inky dark sky is one of nature's most extraordinary and spectacular wonders and, if atmospheric conditions are right, you'll have the chance to witness this amazing phenomenon.

CRUISE ITINERARY

3	26-Oct-19	At Sea	-	-
4	27-Oct-19	Olden (Norway) The southernmost of the three short branches at the inner end of Nordfjord terminates in Olden. The charming village sits amongst tidy, well-kept farms on gently sloping, fertile hillsides, which then rise steeply into thickly wooded and rugged peaks. From the village the beautiful Oldendalen Valley runs between towering mountains to the edge of the mighty Jostedalsbreen Glacier. Briksdal Glacier is one of the more accessible arms of the Jostedalsbreen. The creeping pitted tentacle of ice features in optional excursions from Olden together with glorious waterfalls, glacier fed rivers and wonderful mountain lakes.	0700	1500

7	30-Oct-19	Alta, Norway The largest town in Finnmark, Alta stretches along the inner part of the Altafjord and on the banks of one of Norway's best rivers for salmon fishing, the Alta River. Today's town has three centres. Bossekop with its old trading and market traditions, Elvebakken to the east with the town's airport and harbour, and the new town with its shops. Large areas of woodlands and parts of the high plateau of Finnmarksvidda surround Alta, which in summer enjoys the white nights of the midnight sun and of a winter night often has the northern lights dancing across its skies.	1200	2400
8	31-Oct-19	Honningsvåg for North Cape (Norway) Tiny Honningsvaag, a community of around 2,500, is one of the smallest cities in Norway having been granted this status in 1996. The 'city' lies on the south-eastern side of a large island called Magerøya in the Barents Sea. It is the starting point of excursions to the dramatic North Cape where from a high plateau the monumental 307-metre high cliff plunges into the	1000	1700

		Atlantic. From here only endless ocean lies between the northernmost point of Europe and the North Pole.
9	1-Nov-19	Tromso (Norway) Not surprisingly for a city that lies almost 220 miles north of the Arctic Circle many of Tromsø's landmarks lay claim to the world's 'northernmost' titles. The 'Capital of the Arctic' is home to the world's northernmost university, cathedral, botanic garden and brewery. A cable car runs to the summit of Mount Storsteinen from where there are wonderful views of the lively and beautiful city built on two islands and the mainland, which are linked by both tunnels and bridges. The Polar Museum is just one of Tromsø's fine museums and the striking Arctic Cathedral is undoubtedly a highlight.	0800	1800
10	2-Nov-19	Narvik (Norway) Modern Narvik was the first industrial town in Northern Norway. It was given town status in 1902 when the Ofoten Railway was completed to haul iron ore from Kiruna in Sweden to the ice-free port of Narvik. Narvik became the focus of the world's attention in 1940 and five years of German occupation are documented in the Nordland Red Cross War Memorial Museum. The cable car on Narvikfjellet Mountain opens up an incredible bird's eye view of the town and dramatic landscape around Ofotfjorden. Outside the town in the Salagsdalen Valley is one of the world's northernmost zoos.	0700	1500

12	4-Nov-19	Bergen (Norway)	0930	1500
13	5-Nov-19	Cruising at Sea Known as the 'Gateway to the Fjords', Bergen is Norway's second largest city. Yet with a population of less than a quarter of a million, it has the feel of a small town. It is beautifully sited against a backdrop of seven mountains and the funicular ride to the summit of Mount Fløyen affords wonderful panoramic views of Bergen and Norway's attractive coastline. Overlooking the harbour the colourful Bryggen wharf is the face of Bergen. The characteristic wooden gabled buildings were once the home and offices of Hanseatic merchants but today house shops selling crafts and traditional souvenirs.	-	-
